PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This year book brings to you the very best wishes of your president and of all your officers and directors who have spent a busy summer getting the clubhouse in order and making plans for the year ahead.

That our efforts will meet with your approval is our hope; but, be they brickbats or bouquets, we welcome your opinions. And we particularly invite each of you to take an active part in at least one of the club's activities. For, as Dean Inge has said, "There is no self expenditure without self enrichment; no self enrichment without self expenditure."

EDNA THOMPSON
President

OUR THEME FOR THE YEAR

"Service to the Community"

A COLLECT FOR CLUBWOMEN

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, Straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common, woman's heart of us all, and, O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind!

Mary Stewart, Colorado, 1904

FLAG SALUTE

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands; one Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all."

STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say does the Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
Oh thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation.
Blessed with victory and peace, may the heav'n rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."

Chorus:

And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

I shall not wait the coming of my ship
That's sailing onward through some unknown sea,
But BUILD MYSELF a craft, and through the drip
I'll go a-sailing outward, sturdily,
Until I reach the ports where I shall find
THE CARGOES OTHER FOLKS ARE WAITING FOR,
And gather in what gain the tide and wind
Hold for the wight that dares to leave the shore.

This little strip of light
'Twixt night and night
Let me keep bright
Today!
And if tomorrow shall be sad,
Or never comes at all, I've had
At least—today.

Let me give so much time to the improvement of myself, that I shall have no time to criticize others.

Are you earnest? Seize this very minute,
What you can do, or dream you can, begin it;
Boldness has genius, power and magic in it.
Only engage and then the mind grows heated,
Begin and then the work will be completed.
